

RESTORE HISTORIC ECHO HALL

Membership Application to the Augusta College Echo Hall Association

In 2017, the pre-Civil War building known as “Echo Hall,” the last remaining building of historic Augusta College (1822-1949), was just days from demolition when a community-based preservation group quickly organized to step in and save it. Known as the Augusta College Echo Hall Association, or ACEHA, the group’s primary goal is to purchase and restore this historical Antebellum Era-structure so it may be preserved and put to community use.

On October 9, 2017, ACEHA purchased Echo Hall. Your membership donation demonstrates fiscal support of our mission to restore Echo Hall and develop it for community use. ACEHA is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization, and under the Internal Revenue Service guidelines, all donations may be considered tax-deductible.

Thank you for your help as we seek to PRESERVE OUR PAST TO SERVE OUR FUTURE. To become a 2019 member of the Augusta College Echo Hall Association, fill out the information requested below.
